Superstar Rajinikanth and his superstar director Pa. Ranjith are back together after a decade in the acclaimed Kaththi comedy. This time, Ranjith has decided to come up with a very different film which will be in Tamil, the language for which he is most famous. The story is set in a remote village in Andhra Pradesh, where two buffalo brothers have fallen in love. One of them, Ram (R. Sarath Kumar), wants to marry the other's sister Sona (Ramesh Ayyangar) even though he has a wife. The other, Rama (Varun Tej), wants Sona's hand in marriage to his younger brother Ramaiya (Sathyaraj). To complicate matters, Rama is an army officer posted in Tamil Nadu, where his brother lives. Rama must return home in three months, and then Ramaiya must accompany him to the army station. So Ram must win his brother's approval for the marriage and become a real husband. What follows is a fun-filled adventure, in which the two brothers fall foul of local customs and village gossip.
