CorelDraw and trial version here: and extract the zip file. Make sure the files you are looking for are in the correct folder. In my case, the CorelDraw folder was missing the X7_Components folder. In CorelDRAW, you then need to go to Window > Preferences > Applications > Visualize and turn off the "compatibility mode with CorelDRAW X7 and earlier releases and settings for Visualize (X7" option, make sure it's set to "false". Then, in the Visualize preferences again, change the "compatibility mode" to "X7" and "General" to "false" You then need to copy the components files from the CorelDRAW installation folder to the CorelDRAW X7 installation folder. Once this is done, the application will be running as it should. I tried this on Windows 7 with the trial version of X7 Good luck. Save Time& Effort! Save Time& Effort! We have been working together with Parasitesoft for 7 years and we recommend them as their customer support is very good and they do a high quality job. I would definitely recommend this company to other customer. Godfrey Lee
