New card system: Build the ultimate team with 360 new cards. Unique cards will be awarded at the end of the season, based on the season-long performance of all 22 teams. Additional game-wide card rewards will be rolled out throughout the season. Player development: Create and refine unique team chemistry and tactics for every new season. Each year, teams are ranked according to a new suite of balance metrics, which will factor into team and player transfers. Dynamic leagues: As they prepare for the new season, managers will recruit and manage staff throughout the year. As well, players, coaches and staff will experience seasonal and player-specific development opportunities. There will be new promotions, transfers, and marketing campaigns specific to each club and its strengths and weaknesses. New stadiums: Experience the atmosphere at your favorite stadia, plus the ambience and decor of your favorite team's home city. As well, interact with the team's supporters in unique, fan-directed social spaces. Fan experience: Experience a new way to connect with your favorite players. Based on emotions and actions, players will experience a multitude of social rewards and interacting with fans. Fans will be able to experience different emotion-based game experiences, such as football rivalries and team rivalries. New off-ball AI: Off-ball AI will be more efficient in transitioning the ball around the field. They will deliver short passes and play sideways and backwards much more quickly, and switch on to players more consistently. Online Seasons: Play through a full, new season with real-world teams and players, instead of just a random selection. This will be a global test to make sure the game is balanced in terms of frequency and difficulty level, while supporting all regions and languages. Leaderboard and social competitions: Compete to win and be recognized for your season-long performances in the new FIFA Club World ranking. The ranking system will include enhanced video highlights to celebrate your accomplishments. Now, let's check out what you can expect from the all-new Team Balancing System: - Built on the foundations of the new card system, the Team Balancing system will be a powerful tool for every manager. Balancing the strength of a team in terms of its formation, tactics, player purchases and player development, the balancing algorithm uses a suite of different metrics based on team behaviour, club-wide performance, team ranking and player performance
