The main elements of the story are drawn from the actual ancient Jiwah Geuul religion. The original name that they refer to in the game is Intereon. The keystone powers of the Geuul are called Aethereal Intangibility and Symmetric Conjunction. For example, they should be hidden, thus they are called Aethereal Intangibility. The powers are in turn the keystone power to open the door to the universe that was closed to the users of the Power Weapons. People take on the name Tarnished after they have been exposed to the Aethereal Intangibility. With this story, the world will be changing and An Ashyn will become the new Lord of Sable. The connection element is called The Grid. Here, you can make connections with others. Basically, you can talk to other players in a special room called "Conversation Square." When you enter and start chatting with another player, your dialogue box will turn into a "phantom," which is a graphical scene. Characters and environment objects can be moved or used like props. You can make movements and side conversations. There will be a mini-game "Shooting arrow" that you will interact with other players. This will give you an exciting new experience from the original online elements. The game also encourages you to fully enjoy its unique online element, since the "grid" will not be entirely in the game. In addition, since the "grid" is in a special environment, you will be in full sight of others, and you may see others' movements. There are many other elements in the game. In addition to the main story that will be told via an artificial intelligence machine, you can enjoy more exciting elements like visiting other towns, hunting animals with your pet elk, and fighting other players. When you capture a person, you will be able to clearly see their personality. For example, a person who has a fear of cats will get very scared when they see a cat, or a person who can't stand to be touched will have a strong aversion to other players touching them. The game will develop a story that causes you to feel empathy to the other players. The information that you look at will be like a story that unfolds in real

Introducing Special Xbox One Deals During the Upcoming Gamescom Event My name is Gregg "The Drama King" Berner. First and foremost, what is it that we all might be witnessing here? Yes, that is right! There I was in West Germany, peeking my head over towards the enormous tabletop on which the newest gaming classics are being displayed, or so it seemed - I'm only half-German and don't know the language that well at all. It was definitely there - that large cardboard rectangular thing that Germans like to roll around on. But as I looked upon it, it was....gone. Aww, man, it's kind of sad that it has that exact detail here, so I will just use the emoticon to illustrate my point. What just happened? This all happened in the span of just seconds. I was surrounded by the most helpful people at a convention - oh, wait, no. It was definitely a convention. In the center of the room was my favorite part of the Xbox. Surely, this couldn't be possible!
