Why me? Well, I made this because I wanted to create something different from the "raging norm" and try to keep it as simple as possible. It was also partly inspired by "simulate a rage game" by Rage Master Art, but it has its own additional features. I'll show you a "normal" Rage game in one minute.
The normal game: Defend your base from the enemy spaceship. You can move around, but you are limited to a certain radius. You can shoot the enemy spaceship, but you cannot shoot it in its weak spots. You can shoot at walls, but you don't destroy them. You are able to destroy all obstacles if you reach them.
