“It isn’t just a collaboration between

Imageepoch and company Rivka Games, but a melding of the two studios.” – Siliconera “An action role-playing game with unique monsters, such as creatures with golden wings and eyes that shine white.” – Siliconera “So, if you’re looking for great graphics and just a touch of play-ability, is the Elden Ring Product Key, which also has the purpose of being a puzzle game.” – RPGWatch “It would be a good fit for anyone tired of farming quests like D&D players.” – IGN “It’s very good, and it is well worth it.” –

GameSpy “The Elden Ring has a great story and atmosphere, fantastic graphics, and a variety of RPG elements.” – TouchArcade “The Elden Ring is an addictive game... that not only makes you want to keep going, but offers the feeling that you will never get there.” – PocketGamer “A gripping fantasy story that gives the player much to do while being sure to keep them on their toes with a ton of twists and turns.” – GameZone “Like a fairytale book, with a twist.” – Eurogamer “The Elden Ring is a must-have

game for any RPG fan.” – Game Informer “What’s happening in the game world is pretty incredible, but it’s only one of many layers in the story.” – GameCritics.com “It is a little bit thrilling and a lot challenging, but that’s what makes it feel so fun.” – GameTrailers “The twist on the idea of action RPGs is somewhat novel...” – SmartShooter “The Elden Ring really knocks it out of the park on so many levels...” – GameSpot “If you are a fantasy RPG fan, you should definitely get this game.” – Newsgrounds “Gives you

It has been suggested that

dissatisfaction with primary care may be one of the major contributors to the rising rate of physician burnout. The purpose of this study was to determine if patients in and/or providers from an urban academic general medical clinic were dissatisfied with care they received and to identify characteristics associated with these dissatisfactions. Patients (N = 527) and providers (N = 370) attending an academic general medicine clinic participated in this cross-sectional survey. Patient satisfaction was measured by an item that asked, "What percent of your most recent encounters with physicians at this clinic have you rated as above average?" This item was scored using a 5-point Likert scale. A composite score was computed for each provider where higher scores indicated higher levels of patient satisfaction. Providers were asked to rate their knowledge of their patients'

---
