In The Elder Scrolls Online, every other month would mark the launch of a new end-game zone, and this time is no different. With the addition of Ancient Omens, the new zone will be the Reclamation District, a new area near the instance of Ustengrav, that offers a mystery to uncover. The expansion gives a glimpse at new elements that might be released later including Ustengrav itself, Ebonheart Pact, End-Time, all three Imperial City styles, plans to add more armored suits, and a return of the Imperial City PvP Arena.

New Area - Reclamation District (New Social Space)

An area filled with ruins north of the Imperial City, Reclamation District will be a familiar and completely new area to the Tamriel map. Players will be able to look at the different civilizations of Tamriel and be an observer as well as an actor in this new social space. Reclamation District is also the place where the Emperor's Legion, Ten-Tale-Hilda, is currently ruling.

New Area - Ustengrav (Open World)

Ustengrav was the Imperial City where gods ruled, but you know what? The Gods are dead. At least for now, and Emperor Talos' Legion has now taken over control of the town. You know what? I hope Ustengrav stays! The Old Gods might not be sleeping anymore. They might have, I mean, evolved. Either way, the choice is yours. If you are a player of TESO and want to go back to the town of Ustengrav, here's a new battle of leveling! Heheheh....

New Area - Ebonheart Pact

Tamriel was once ruled by the Ten-Tale-Hilda Empire. However, the loud booming of the Ten-Tale-Hilda Empire's heavily armored war machines was the first clue that the Old Gods were not sleeping anymore. The empire reached its peak of power when it
